What is new this year

We are adding an Arabic virtual mid-week session in every class at no extra cost to the parents. The details of these sessions will be provided to you by your teacher. In these sessions we will review our lessons and/or help our students with their homework

Classes description

You will find our IMPROVED 20-21 classes description posted on our website: <https://www.baaschool.org/>

Culture Class

We will not open Culture class for this year, as it is highly interactive and won't be suitable for virtual classes.

Enroll Today

It is extremely helpful that you enroll your child as soon as possible. Early enrollment will help the administration and the teaching staff determine many important factors like classes sizes and teachers' readiness.
